NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

CHARGE AGAINST A CONVENT.

Surprising allegations regarding a Church of England convent were made in the Probate Court in London yesterday during the hearing of an action to set aside the will of Miss Florence Toogood, late of the Convent of St. Mary of the Cross, in Market street, Shoreditch.

Miss Toogood left all her property, amounting to $35,000, to Miss Hannah Skinner, the mother superior of the convent. It was alleged, however, that the will was obtained by the undue influence of Miss Skinner and Rev. Henry Daniel Nihill, the spiritual director and confessor of the convent, who was formerly vicar of St. Michael's, Shoreditch, but now lives at Hythe.

There were a number of nuns in court when the case began. Mr. Barnard, K. C., explained that it was brought by two sisters of Miss Toogood against three ladies who had obtained probate of the will.

Miss Toogood, who died in 1895, was, he said, entitled to property under her father's and grandfather's wills on the death of her mother. Her mother lived until February, 1906, and her will could not be contested before the date.

At the end of 1875 Rev. Mr. Nihill went to Torquay, where Miss Toogood was living with her mother and sisters, to hold a retreat. Miss Toogood entered the retreat and remained three days.

On her return home she stated that she desired to join a sisterhood which Mr. Nihill and Miss Skinner had started some years before. Her mother objected, but after the retreat two members of the sisterhood went to Torquay and saw Miss Toogood, with the result that she came to London and entered a convent at Hagerston. In the following year she entered the convent founded by Mr. Nihill at Shoreditch.

There were three grades in the order, Mr. Barnard explained—postulants, novices and professed sisters. Miss Toogood became a postulant, and undertook, among other things:

To render absolute obedience to the mother superior.

To submit to the sister in whose charge she was placed.

To apply herself diligently to the study of the principles of religious life and the written and unwritten rules of the sisterhood.

To keep silence in the presence of strangers unless invited to speak by the mother superior.

To use none of her own money.

Not to go home or visit her friends.

Not to see them at the convent unless with the mother superior's permission.

To receive no letters except through the mother superior.

To confess to the mother superior every night, or to the sister in whose care she was committed, any breaches of rules committed during the day, and to receive penance if necessary.

To make a sacramental confession once a week.

"Before entering the order," Mr. Barnard stated, "this young lady desired to divide her property among her sisters, but afterwards, much to the surprise of her family, she wrote asking that her few possessions should be sent to her, because she had come to the conclusion that she was 'robbing God.'

"You will see that that letter was not written by her of her own accord, but in consequence of rules and restrictions put on her.

"Later Miss Toogood became a novice, and was given the name of Sister Mary Gabriel Joseph. The rules for novices are such that no person who is subject to them can be a free agent."

There were nearly 50 pages of these rules, from which the following extracts were read:

The voice of thy superior is the voice of God.

Listen on the knees in perfect silence, and defend not thyself.

Let no sister keep anything locked up from other sisters.

Let no sister take food or drink except at the proper time. Let her not take food outside the convent, nor medicine without leave.

Let no sister write to those outside about what has happened in the convent.

When an inferior is reproved by a superior, let her listen with respect and without interruption.

Let no sister seek the advice of any expert without the superior's leave.

"Can anyone be a free agent under such rules?" asked counsel indignantly.

The evidence of a former sister, Miss Mary Ann Allcard, of Bournemouth, which had been taken on commission, was then read. She stated that Mother Monica and Rev. Mr. Nihill went for a holiday every summer, taking one of the sisters with them. Sometimes they went abroad to Switzerland. All the menial work was done by the sisters, including the washing and scrubbing.

The mother superior had a very violent temper, she said, and the inmates were afraid of her. When anything was broken they had to go without a meal. "She was very harsh in her treatment of sisters unless they were favorites," she added. "A novice known as Sister Lucy was suffering from consumption, and the doctor said she could not live many weeks. The girl worked hard until within a month of her death. The mother superior told me not to get out of bed and do anything for Sister Lucy, but she was so terribly bad that, in spite of what the mother superior had said, I got up.

"As a penance for something I was ordered with another sister to carry a box which I alone could not lift from the ground from Edgware station to the convent there. I would hardly like to use the language the mother superior uttered on one occasion.

Notice to City Taxpayers.

Collector's Office, June 17, 1907.

Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1907 are now in the hands of the collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owing or harboring Dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3.00 or $5.00.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

☞In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for licenses to the Auditor.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 20, 1907.

CONGRESSMAN CARLIN.

The democrats of the Eighth district of Virginia yesterday selected Mr. C. C. Carlin, of Alexandria, as their nominee for Congress. The canvass had probably been the most active that has been conducted in this district during the past half century. The gentlemen who have posed as candidates for the position have visited practically every precinct in the district and worked in season and out of season in presenting their claims to suffragans. There was, however, no issue to cause unseemly wrangles, and, so far as is known, the canvass has been conducted decently and in order. While the Alexandrian has been declared the choice of the party, the action of the voters is no reflection upon the two worthy gentlemen who will be compelled to wait with patience their time. The district would doubtless have been equally safe with Judge Nicol or Mr. Gordon as its representative, while there is no doubt that Mr. Carlin will devote his entire time and energy to the service of the people of his district and State. The cartoon published in the Gazette and other newspapers a few weeks ago proved prophetical. The platoon at the start was composed of five candidates. They kept in line until Mr. Hooe lagged and finally dropped in the road, leaving the quaternion headed toward the goal. At the eleventh hour, there was another unexpected collapse when Mr. Ryan relaxed his gait and finally fell out of line, leaving Messrs. Carlin, Gordon and Nicol on the track. The latter was seen to flag later, when Carlin and Gordon, with the goal before them, pressed on side by side. Sometimes one and then the other was ahead or a nose in the lead, with the result uncertain almost to the finish. The Alexandrian, however, was displaying remarkable vitality, and while a cloud of witnesses with baited breath anxiously awaited the close, Mr. Carlin, as the cartoon portrayed him, landed on the steps of the Capitol but a short distance ahead of Mr. Gordon. The victor, while receiving the congratulations of his many friends and supporters, will also be the recipient of the right hand of fellowship from the unsuccessful candidates and their democratic conferes all over the district. People throughout Virginia are thoroughly familiar by this time with Mr. Carlin's biography, as it has been published in every paper in the district; hence there is no need to reproduce it at this time. About all that can be said is that he has honestly won his spurs. He began life at the bottom rung of the ladder, and with his in born genius and industry has forged ahead, gaining popularity until he became a formidable political factor in his district and State. Alexandria is justly proud of him, and the district and State he will represent in the councils of the nation will have equal cause to be.

NAVAL officers are said to be holding their breath for fear there will be an investigation as a result of the discovery that Commodore Winslow, of the cruiser Charleston, the President's friend, attempted to smuggle into the country at San Diego, Cal., a lot of champagne, choice cigars and curios supposed to have been picked up in South America while the cruiser was on its voyage with Secretary of State Root last year. Were an investigation into this case held it is believed it would disclose a general practice among naval officers, returning from foreign stations, to bring into the country duty free consignments of valuable duffle such as Commodore Winslow tried to get in at the Southern California port. There are pretty strong intimations that naval officers believe they have a right to do this because, as they claim, of the smallness of their pay and nature of their duties, and there is some reason to believe that the customs officers at certain ports wink at the practice.

THE ELECTION of Mr. Carlin to Congress proves the truth of the assertion that "it pays to advertise." Mr. Carlin bought space in every paper in the district and kept the fact constantly before the public that he was in the race to win. Mr Carlin was once connected with a newspaper and learned early in life the value of printer's ink.

THE statement made in a Washington paper this morning that Mr. Carlin did not receive a single vote in Warrenton is entirely incorrect. Mr. Carlin has a large number of friends in that town and received a very flattering vote there—70. The Washington papers frequently get Virginia matters fearfully wrong.

THE primary shows that the democratic voters of Loudoun county will not unite upon a county man and also that a farmer candidate has no chance of going to Congress from the Eighth district.

THE endorsement of ones own city is very gratifying to a man whether he wins or loses—but particularly when he wins.

ALEXANDRIA is in the saddle, on deck, up a tree or equal to any occasion.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, June 20.

The possibility of the German government exerting an influence in the investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission into the complaint of the Cosmopolitan Shipping Company against the alleged trust of foreign steamship lines of which the Hamburg-American Packet Company is the chief offender, is acknowledged in Washington. In effect, the German government is a party defendant in the action, it being charged that the foreign corporation is backed by that government. It is understood that a representative of the German embassy will attend hearings in the investigation, which will be held in New York city. The manner in which the shipping "trust" is said to monopolize trade in the United States, is by a pooling and assignment to its different members, of all freight originating in Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Paul, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Duluth and other manufacturing cities. Ports of clearing are assigned to the Hamburg American Packet Company, The North German Lloyd; The Scandanavian American Line, and the Wilson (Hull) Line, all alleged members of the trust. It is charged that the Hamburg-American gets 56 per cent. of the American traffic; North German Lloyd, 12 1-2 per cent. Wilson (Hull), Lines, 2 1-2 per cent. and the Scandanavian 24 per cent. In all, it is alleged that the "trust" controls 97 per cent. of the traffic from Interior American cities to Continental Europe. The combined lines will deny that there is any combination in restraint of trade, and will point out that the Cosmopolitan Shipping Company, the complainant, is itself a foreign corporation, controlled by Hecksher, The Danish Steamship owner.

"Elated over its victory over Russia, and confident in its power, the Japanese government is awaiting the opportune moment to declare war against the United States. The time will come sooner or later, when we will be forced to enter the field against the yellow hordes of the orient." This was the alarm that Col. Emmet M. Urell, past commander-in-chief, sounded to the United Spanish war veterans when they met last night to welcome the present Commander-in-chief Ward, of Buffalo. Col. Urell counceled against being lulled into a sense of false security, and favored immediate war preparation. He asked the veterans to use their influence to have a greater navy maintained. Commander-in-chief Ward, who is on a tour of inspection, left today for Scranton, Pa.

Japanese Ambassador Aoki, today, for the first time, talked freely regarding relations between the United States and Japan, incidentally expressing disbelief in the rumors that he is to be recalled. "There is no 'situation,' he said, between Japan and the United States. The best of relations exist, and there is nothing of a diplomatic character under consideration. It is very distressing that there would be agitation over trifles which are purely of local import, if import at all." "Is the progressive party strong enough to secure your recall?" he was asked. "I do not credit the story of my recall," he replied. "The progressives do not have a majority in the national legislature. I do not know what their strength really is, but I think not very great." The Ambassador in reference to the Pacific said it was a fallacy to suppose that any country could ever dominate the Pacific. "It is too big" he declared," and there are too many countries bordering on it. The interests of all must be conserved, and it is idle to suppose that Japan can ever hope to control such a vast commerce that even the Asiatic countries will furnish."

Bids were opened at the navy department this afternoon for the two new battleships of the Dreadnought type, authorized by congress at the last session. The lowest figures were submitted by the Newport News Shipbuilding Company, which bid $3,987,000. The next lowest bidder was the Fore River Shipbuilding Co., at $4,480,000. These two companies will likely get the contract for one ship each. Wm. Cramp and Sons bid the highest, being $5,100,000 while the New York Shipbuilding Company bid $4,545,000. Bids were also opened for armor for the ships. The Carnegie and Bethlehem Steel Companies put in identical bids of $420 per ton from 7,956 tons from class A, and $400 a ton for 1,420 tons for armor of other classes. The Midvale Company put in a uniform bid of $410 a ton on all classes of armor.

The Department of Justice has begun an investigation of the United Shoe Machinery Company, corporated under the laws of Massachusetts. It is charged that the corporation owns and controls all the machinery used in the United States for the manufacture of shoes; that it leases its machinery only under a stiff royalty and that it is operating in restraint of trade. It is hinted that some men of wide influence are financially interested in the concern.

Col. Ayres' Answer.

Acting Secretary of War Oliver yesterday received a communication from Lieut. Col. Charles G. Ayres, Fourteenth Infantry, in reply to an official letter from the department inquiring as to the authenticity of certain statements attributed to him derogatory to the officials of the War Department as well as to the officials in command of the United States Military Academy.

Gen. Oliver declines to say anything in regard to the character of Col. Ayres' reply further than that it will be held for the consideration of Secretary Taft, who is expected to return to Washington next Saturday.

Col. Ayres is now at Highland Falls, near West Point, on leave of absence from his post at Fort Walla Walla, Wash., and is reported to have indorsed the course taken by his wife in her controversy with Col. Howze, commandant of cadets, in regard to the "Easter overcoat incident" and subsequent events which led to an order from the War Department forbidding her admission to the West Point military reservation.

George Bullock and Miss Clara Miller, of Belleville, ended their lives in a suicide pact in Belleville, Ill., yesterday. The couple were in love, but Bullock already had a wife living. The bodies of the pair were found on the shore of Triangle Lake. In the forehead of each was a bullet hole and between them lay a revolver. The couple were clasped in each other's arm, and notes left near the bodies indicated that they had ended their lives in turn. Bullock was thirty years old and Miss Miller eighteen. When found a blood-stained razor was found near the bodies.

Mr. Reese had been connected with the bank for eighteen years, having entered it as clerk in 1889. He was in his forty-first year, was married and had one child. The cause of his act was evidently ill-health. He had been suffering from neurasthenia for a long time. He feared mental alienation and said he would rather die than lose his mind.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Troubles in France.

Paris, June 20.—Official advices received by Premier Clemenceau today give the number of casualties in yesterday's rioting at Narbonne, the center of the disaffected wine-growing district, as five killed and eighty seriously injured, scores sustaining minor injuries such as broken heads and slight sabre wounds, of which no mention was made. The injured were all victims of the charges made by the cavalry to break down the barricades erected in the streets for the strikers.

Today's news from the disturbances indicates that a calm has followed yesterday evening's disorders, and that the activity of the cavalry has had a quieting effect on the strikers. The government today has the upper hand, and there has been no looting and there is no present possibility of mob rule.

The government's troops continue to hold the towns in check.

Later advices place the list of seriously injured at upwards of 200, a number of whom are expected to die.

The Telegraphers.

New York, June 20.—Notwithstanding the fact that secrecy has been maintained as to where the contemplated strike of the telegraphers will occur, it was rumored that Pittsburg would probable be selected as the place to begin the strike. Should the Smoky City not be chosen it is likely that Kansas City will be selected.

Efforts were made today to prevent the strike. United States Labor Commissioner Neill has been conferring with the heads of the two companies in the hope of a settlement. It was stated at the union headquarters in this city today that the strike order would be given in a week unless the officials of the telegraph companies come to terms.

With the operators' ultimatum in their hands, the officials of the companies are saying nothing, but it is intimated they are making every effort, to be ready to carry on business should a strike be ordered.

A later dispatch says an agreement has been reached between the operators and the telegraph companies. There will be no strike.

Wreck in a Tunnel.

Bedford, Ind., June 20.—A wreck in which ten persons were badly bruised occured early today in the middle of the east tunnel at Tunnelton, 14 years miles from Mitchell. An east bound Baltimore and Ohio southwestern passenger train was proceeding through the tunnel at a high rate of sbeed, ten minutes late. In the middle of the tunnel there is a curve. The engine passed over the curve safely, but the tender jumped the track and the mail, passenger and sleeping cars piled up in a heap. The engineer, believing the engine had merely broken loose from the train, proceedes at full speed to the nearest station two miles away, fearing the rest of the train would smash into his engine. When rescuers arrived the passengers, some of them bleeding and bruised, were emerging from the mouth of the tunnel. The cars were badly smashed up, and there was much difficulty in rescuing some of the passengers from the debris on account of the bad air.

Monument Unveiled.

Richmond, Va., June 20.—An interesting feature of the ceremonies attending the unveiling of the Forty-eighth Pennsylvania monument near Petersburg today and one showing the cordial good feeling now existing between the Blue and the Gray is the fact that the unveiling was jointly done by a northern and a southern lady—Miss Bessie B. Reid, of Pottsville, Pa., and Mrs. Otelia Mahone McGill, of Petersburg, daughter of Gen. William Mahone. The Pennsylvania veterans to the number of 300 or more, escorting Governor Stuart and staff of State, arrived at Petersburg early this morning, and after breakfasting were escorted by A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans and the Petersburg Grays out to the monument in Prince George county, where the imposing services of the day took place. A number of addresses were delivered, including those by Governor Stuart and Governor Swanson of Virginia.

Suburban Handicap.

New York, June 20.—With a rift in the threatening clouds which during the early hours of the day threatened to mar the event, Sheepshead Bay this afternoon will be the scene of one of the greatest gatherings of race-goers in the history of American turf. The Suburban Handicap—American's grand prize and Epsom Derby combined—the blue ribbon event of the throughbred world, is carded as the feature. Seventeen thoroughbreds, the cracks of the country, are carded to go to the post, and unless a deluge should convert the track, which is now lightening fast, into a muddy lane before post time, at least fifteen of the entrants will probably parade. The Suburban Handicap will be for three years olds and upwards; sweepstakes of $200 each for starters; guaranteed cash values $20,000 of which $2,000 to the second and $1,000 to the third. Mile and quarter.

Threw Bomb in Chamber of Deputies.

Athens, June 20.—The members of the Chamber of Deputies are today still suffering from the shock caused last night when an unknown man threw a bomb from the gallery while the chamber was in session. Only the fact that the lighted fuse fell off prevented an explosion which would have undoubtedly killed many members. As it was there was a wild panic among the deputies and all of them made a rush for the street. Order was later restored, however, and the session resumed, but there was considerable nervousness among the deputies. The thrower of the bomb was arrested. He is believed to be insane.

Missing Child.

West Chester, Pa., June 20—Despite the fact that a continuous search has been made for little 5-years-old Mary Robbins Newlin, who disappeared from her home Sunday, there has been no trace of the little girl. Today there is a difference of opinion among the neighbors. Some of them think the child was kidnapped, while others believe she has been slain.

Ex-President Cleveland.

Princeton, N. J., June 20.—Former President Grover Cleveland, who is ill at his home here suffering from stomach trouble, which took the form of a malignant growth, is today much improved. The crisis in the disease came late in the evening, according to the physicians, and the former President is now entirely out of danger.

Another dispatch says the ex-President is in a serious condition.

The Haywood Case.

Boise, Idaho, June 29.—Failing to get through with the presentation of its case against Wm. D. Haywood for the murder of former Governor Steuenberg yesterday, as it had planned, the state is not now expected to finish before tomorrow. An adjournment will then be taken until Monday when the defense will attempt to break down the testimony of Harry Orchard.

Robbery the Motive.

Pelham, N. Y., June 20.—Robbery is now believed to have been the only motive for the brutal murder of Julius T. Rosenheimer, millionaire manufacturer, who was struck down while walking with his wife in the rose gardens of his beautiful estate, "The Roses," and today the search for the murderer was shifted to New York city.

Fire in Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, O, June 20.—A dangerous fire is in progress in the wholesale whisky district. It started with an explosion in the whisky house of A. and J. Freiberg, and threatens to extend to other buildings. A general alarm has been turned in.

Steamer in Distress.

San Francisco, June 20.—Flying distress signals and with a heavy sea an unknown vessel is reported off Point Reyes in danger. Tugs have started to assist the steamer which may be the city of Pueblo from Puget Sounds points.

The New York Stock Market.

New York, June 20.—There were only two things spoken of on the floor of the exchange today—the Suburban and the postponed action on the Reading dividend. In the early trading Reading was offered down from 101 to 99¾ by some of the professional traders and the same element bought the stock back before the end of the first hour putting the price up to 101¼. Buying made Union Pacific comparatively strong and fairly active for a time. Outside of these stocks there was no feature to the trading and no important price movement.

Kaiser's Trust To Go On Rack.

The most stupendous trust inquiry ever undertaken by the Interstate Commerce Commission was yesterday decided upon—so stupendous that it involves the German Emperor's policy to make his empire shipping mistress of the seas—as the result of the filing of charges against the Hamburg-American Packet Company, disclosing an ironclad trust in transatlantic freight carrying—a combine accused of defying the United States laws and using the most drastic of illegal coercion. The character of the inquiry will differ from any heretofore undertaken, in having an international scope and involving the German government itself.

The complainant is the Cosmopolitan Shipping Company, of Philadelphia, operating lines to Rotterdam, Leith and Copenhagen. The inquiry which the company thus sets on foot will have to deal with an alleged combination between railroads in the United States and the German shipping concern, and, therefore, interests every American producer, manufacturer, or shipper aspiring to introduce his goods to foreign consumers.

The question raised by the Philadelphia shipping company is thus both of a national and international character, charging, as it does, that the huge combine is a monopoly in restraint of trade in its almost absolute control of eastbound and west-bound traffic between interior points of the United States and Hamburg, and further that it maintains a law-defying pool in New York city, which dictates the rail and ocean routes by which freight for Baltic ports shall be shipped, the percentage of traffic each steamship line in the pool shall carry, and the percentage of export business that shall pass through Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk and Newport News.

In other words, it is charged that this great foreign corporation, backed by the German government, dictates all over the United States terms, route and rates to shippers who forward goods to Hamburg and Baltic ports, and further, that it diverts freight to and from American ports at its own will, without regard to the natural flow of trade, using coercive and unlawful methods to crush competion.

The Suicide of Miss Hawxhurst.

The body of Miss Mamie Hawxhurst, who committed suicide Sunday by taking corrosive sublimate, was buried yesterday in the cemetery lot at Fairfax which she selected herself some time ago. The funeral ceremony was conducted in harmony with written instructions which she gave before she took the poison. Friends of the dead woman are convinced that she killed herself from despondency caused by her inability to discover her parentage. She was supposed to have been engaged to a young merchant in Fairfax but had declared she would never marry until she had discovered the facts relative to her birth. When she was a small child, twenty-five years ago, she was adopted from a Pennsylvania orphans' home by Mr. and Mrs. John Hawxhurst, but all efforts to discover the name of her parents have been in vain. A few days before the suicide, Miss Hawxhurst consulted a druggist about poisons, gaining the information which she put to use later by taking corrosive sublimate. She made the mistake, however, of mixing the poison with water and did not achieve the quick death she had planned.

The dedication and acceptance of the new chancel window took place this afternoon. The window is the gift of Mrs. S. F. Houston of Philadelphia and is commemorative of missionary spirit of seminary work. The subject is "Christ Delivering His Last Charge to the Apostles before Assension" The window is regarded as a fine class of work and was executed by Mayor Brothers of Munich, Germany.

An appropriate address was delieved by Rev. A. B. Kinsolving, D. D., of St. Paul's Church, Baltimore.

REV. DR. LLOYD.

Dr. John J. Lloyd, the beloved rector of Grace Memorial Episcopal church, who was recently called by the council of the Diocese of Southern Virginia to the work of an arch-deacon, to take charge of the mission work of that church in southwest Virginia, has decided to accept the call of the council. His resignation was presented last night to the regular meeting of the vestry of the church and it was accepted to be effective on July 15th. Dr. Lloyd has been rector of Grace church for many years and the regret is general in the city that he finds it to be his duty to leave Lynchburg. Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WEDDINGS.

Mr. Philip Martin Le Cuyer, of Washington, and Miss Rhoda Blanche Cooke, daughter of the late John H. and Susan R. Cooke, were quietly married at the parsonage of St. Mary's Church last evening by Rev. Father Cutler. The bride was very tastefully gowned in white chiffon cloth and lace and was attended by her little niece, Miss Helen Moore, who was gowned in light blue mousseline. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. John Le Cuyer, of Washington. Only the immediate families were present at the ceremony. The newly married couple left on a bridal tour through the north.

Miss Mabel B. Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Norris, and Mr. George W. Harrington were married at the Presbyterian manse yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. R. Sevier performing the ceremony. Only a few friends of the contracting parties were present. A reception was tendered the bride at her home on upper Prince street. The bride, who is a blonde, was becomingly attired in white silk and carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Chas. Humphries, and the groom by Mr. Harry Davies, of this city. Later Mr. and Mrs. Harrington left for a short bridal trip through the South, taking with them the best wishes of their many young friends.

MASS MEETING.

As has been stated, a mass meeting is to be held in the Opera House next Saturday evening for the purpose of exhibiting the relations between the employes of the Washington, Alexandria, and Mount Vernon Railway, who are members of a local union, and the company. The Alexandria Trades Council and the local union of railway men will have the meeting in charge. Among the speakers expected are Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; William B. Fitzgerald, of Binghamton, N. Y., a member of the national board; John H. Brinkham, president of the Central Labor Union, of Washington, and Samuel De Nedry, general organizer of the American Federation of Labor.

The following circular was distributed today: "Mass meeting of street railway employees of the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Railway Co., to be held Thursday evening at 12 o'clock midnight at Alexandria Labor Temple, corner King and Royal streets. Thirty-two motormen, conductors and brakemen discharged for joining an organization of their craft. Come and stand by your fellowmen."

E. H. S. ALUMNI.

At the annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the Episcopal High School the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President John Mason Brown, of Washington; first vice president, Arthur Barnwell, of New York; second vice president, Lawrence M. Miller, of Baltimore; secretary, Mayo C. Brown, of Lynchburg; assistant secretary, J. M. Daniel, jr., of the Episcopal High School, and treasurer, A. R. Hoxton, of the Episcopal High School.

The president, secretary and treasurer and the following compose the executive committee: Dr. J. H. Yarmall, of Washington; R. C. Williams, jr., of the University of Virginia; R. E. Lee, jr., of Fairfax county; Henry C. Riely, of Richmond; Frank R. Smith, of Baltimore, and Prof. William H. Echols, of the University of Virginia.

In the relay race between teams of the alumni association and the school, the former won.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The closing of the public schools was continued this morning when the pupils of Hallowell School, colored girls, Bessie K. Sprigg principal, were dismissed for the session. Short addresses were made in each of the rooms by the superintendent and the certificates of distinction were distributed by the clerk of the school board. The superintendent's medal in the principals school was awarded to Lilian A. Jackson. The following in this school, No. 1, received certificates: Estelle L. Arnold, Lottie B. Burke, Bessie E. Baltimore, Bessie Barbour, Dorothy Blackwell, Bessie Blue, Ellen Fawcett, Martha A. Holmes, Laura Holland, Lillian A. Jackson, Helen F. Johnson, Ella Lee, Ellen Lucas, Mabel Stewart, Amanda Webster.

CERTIFICATES OF DISTINCTION.

In Washington School No. 2, taught by Capt. W. H. Sweeney, which closed yesterday, the following young gentlemen received certificates of distinction:

Milton J. Burnell, 85 per cent; Archie P. Cone, 92; Gilbert J. Cox, 94; Jno. T. Creegan, 85; Ray O. Davis, 87; Wm. A. Devaughn, 89; Lee Donnelly, 88; Richard H. Fawcett, 90; Alfred Hurley, 89; Wm. J. McKenney, 90; Luther Nelson 85; Owen J. Nugent, 93; Eugene Recker, 89; Justus Schneider, 81; Randolph Simms, 91; Irving Tennyson, 85; Thomas H. Windsor, 96; Depew Chauncey, conduct; Raymond Hellmuth, conduct.

POLICE COURT.

There were no cases on the docket of the Police Court this morning. This is occasionally the case, but considering the fact that it is the day after an exciting election, it speaks well for the city, and shows that Alexandrians are prone to be law-abiding at all times. There were but few drunken men about the polls during the day, and they were guilty of no disorderly conduct; hence there were no arrests during the day or night. It is hoped that the conditions that prevailed yesterday may form a precedent for all future elections.

PROPERTY SALE.

Mr. Robert Elliot has sold to Dr. Thomas B. Cochran the furnished residence on the south side of Duke street between Pitt and St. Asaph. Personal friends of Dr. Cochran smilingly decline to say what this means.

There was no meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners last night, no quorum having appeared.

MR. CARLIN VICTORIOUS.

Hon. C. C. Carlin.

The democratic Congressional primary election in this district yesterday resulted in the nomination of Mr. C. C. Carlin, of Alexandria, to succeed John F. Rixey. It was after midnight before the result was definitely ascertained, at which time there was a large assemblage in Mr. Carlin's office as well as in front of the building, and the greatest interest was manifested.

While early returns were favorable to the Alexandria candidate restlessness was at times manifest among his supporters, but as later news was received and it was shown that Mr. Carlin had carried Fauquier county and had polled nearly 150 more votes in Alexandria than his friends had anticipated, his thermometer began to rise, and as county after county was heard from and estimates made, it was seen that Mr. Carlin was in the lead and destined to hold his position.

Near midnight about all the returns had been received except those from Louisa, and it was seen that it would be necessary for Mr. Gordon to receive the support of every suffragan in his own county in order to forge ahead of Mr. Carlin. This was regarded as improbable, and there was every reason to believe that Mr. Carlin was virtually nominated.

At the outset Messrs. Carlin, Nicol and Gordon formed a platoon in the race. For a time their positions fluctuated. It later, however, assumed a triangular shape with Carlin and Gordon abreast and Nicol at the angle at the rear. The Alexandrian and the candidate from Louisa ran on apparently neck to neck with the result uncertain until near the finish, when Gordon was seen to be lagging. There was a final spurt on the part of Carlin and the race was over.

At midnight Mr. Charles C. Carlin appeared at his office, and was taken bodily by a crowd of several hundred who had besieged his office throughout the night and was placed upon the heads of the assemblage, amid the applause of the multitude. Nothing would suffice but a speech. Shortly thereafter the crowd, numbering several hundred, appeared at his office and he made a speech in which he thanked the citizens for the honor conferred upon him. He stated that notwithstanding the reports emanating from Alexandria, which greatly maligned him, he had won out in a fair and square contest. The speaker said he would rather suffer an ignominious defeat than do what Ryan did by withdrawing at the eleventh hour. Mr. Carlin said he was mostly supported by the masses and not the classes. Continuing, said he: "I am one of the masses and not of the classes." Mr. Carlin also said that he would forget his enemies in this campaign, and asked his supporters to do the same. Mr. Carlin also referred to the vigorous campaign he had made during this contest. He said that he has during the past ninety days made ninety-four speeches, during which time he subsisted practically on ham and eggs, and he asserted that he is now prepared to live on cream and honey. Mr. Carlin's speech was received with vociferous applause. Afterwards he went to his home, where he was serenaded by a band.

The following was the vote cast in this city yesterday:

	Carlin.	Nicol.	Gordon.
First ward.....	281	63	5
Second ward.....	323	64	5
Third ward.....	279	54	4
Fourth ward	264	56	3
Total.....	1,147	237	17

Mr. Ryan received 2 votes, one each in the First and Second wards.

The total vote cast was 1414—356 in the First ward, 398 in the Second, 337 in the Third and 323 in the Fourth.

In Alexandria county, Jefferson district, gave Mr. Carlin 28 majority, Arlington gave Judge Nicol 32 majority, and Washington gave Judge Nicol 41 majority.

The total vote cast in the county was 598, which was divided as follows: Nicol, 298; Carlin, 243; Gordon, 2.

The following is the votes cast in yesterday's primary by counties:

Mr. Carlin has been in receipt today of telegrams of congratulation from all over the district, State and even beyond the bounds of the State, including messages from Senator Martin, Governor Swanson, Commissioner of the District of Columbia West and others.

Mr. James C. Hoos has issued the following card from Bluemont, Loudoun county: "The people of Loudoun county have been waiting for many years to unite on a man to represent the Eighth district in Congress. Our county is the most progressive, agriculturally and commercially, in the district. Ryan's withdrawal demoralized the voters of the county and district notwithstanding the loyal support the county would have given him. We need red blood."

ECHOES OF THE ELECTION.

During the wee sma' hours of last night, when it had become apparent that Mr. C. C. Carlin was the democratic candidate for Congress from this district, some youngsters, friends of the successful competitor, provided themselves with drums and fifes and started to discourse funeral dirges in front of the residences of certain gentlemen who had played prominent parts as opponents to the Alexandrian. They were having a good time in their way until the police drove them off the streets.

A practical joker appeared in a group of gentlemen this morning and, with a serious visage, said he had just witnessed a fierce fight between two city undertakers. One of the listeners innocently asked the cause of the fight, when he was told that each of the combatants was desirous of the honor of burying a well-known merchant who had been engaged in conducting a vigorous propaganda for a defeated candidate. One of the undertakers who it was said was a party to the fight, upon hearing the joke, went to the store of the gentlemen who was smarting under defeat, and informed him that he had come for the body. The storekeeper, by no means in the best of humor, looked up and directed the undertaker to a road leading to the Plutonian realms.

REV. FATHER CARNE.

Rev. Father R. L. Carne, recently of Old Point College, after an absence of twelve years has returned to his former home in this city, where he expects to reside the remainder of his life. Father Carne deserves a well earned rest for he has led an active life since boyhood. He, however, will assist at St. Mary's Church, when occasion requires, will celebrate mass at St. Mary's Academy, where there is a beautiful little chapel, and will devote his spare time in looking after the moral welfare of the Catholic boys of the city. (It is hoped he may extend his field of influence.) His many friends are glad to welcome him back to his old home, Alexandria.

PERSONAL.

Mr. C. C. Carlin and his family went to Washington this evening to attend the theatre and will not return until midnight. Mr. Carlin took this course in order to secure a little recreation and rest after his strenuous campaign.

Mr. O. P. Angelo, who came from Greenville, N. C., five hundred miles, to vote for Mr. C. C. Carlin, left this morning for the South, where he will be located for a few months.

Chief Goods, of the police force, has gone to Jamestown. His position is being filled by Lieutenant Smith and Officer Roberts is acting lieutenant.

COUNTRY DANCE.

The house committee of the Golf Club has arranged to give the country dance at the club house on Saturday night. It will be a subscription affair, but a few invitations have been sent outside the club, as this is the first entertainment in charge of the newly appointed committee. The committee is arranging to have entertainments of different kinds at the club every Saturday during the summer, which will be given by the club, like the very popular teas, and which will be for members only.

SUICIDE OF COLORED MAN.

Charles Jackson, colored, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor at the home of his sister, Mamie Jackson, 416 north Pitt street, at 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening. Jackson warned members of his family shortly before he committed the act that he intended to take his life. The deceased was about 30 years of age. He was at one time employed in a Royal street restaurant.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 20 1907.

Disorders in France.

Late yesterday evening the crowds at Norbonne, France, built barricades in the streets leading to the city hall. Companies of unarmed soldiers were sent, with an escort, to remove them. The crowd reconstructed them again in an hour, but they were again removed by the soldiers.

An attempt was made to set fire to the doors of the subprefecture after oil was poured on it. This led to a collision in which several persons were injured. A report says from one to six persons were killed.

A crowd at Montpellier tried to set fire to the courthouse. The gendarmes intervened, but the crowd did not disperse until the riot act was read.

Albert had not been heard of up to a late hour last night. As the officers with the warrants worked all Tuesday night, they have been granted permission to rest.

There is reason to believe that the government is censoring news from the Midi. There is a suspicion also that if Albert escaped, as the early reports indicated, it may have been under circumstances similar to those which led Lincoln to say, "If you have an elephant by the tail and he wants to get away, why not let go?" Albert in the guise of a martyr might be troublesome because it is unquestionable that the people adore him.

Memorial to Lee.

Ex-Gov. D. C. Heyward, of South Carolina, an alumnus of Washington and Lee University, in response to an urgent invitation from the authorities of the university, is in Lexington. He has consented to head the Lee centennial movement. It has been decided to broaden the scope of this movement, in view of Governor Heyward's acceptance of the call to lead in this plan to suitably commemorate the centennial of General Lee's birth.

The movement will be national in scope and an advisory committee will be organized, including subcommittees in the various states. It is proposed to ask the people of the country to subscribe $1,000,000, with a view to broadening the scope of Washington and Lee University as an expression, not merely of their admiration of the life and character of General Lee, but more especially as a testimonial of their appreciation of his services to the cause of education as president of the institution endowed by Washington and administered by Lee during the last five years of his life.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Cause of Peace will Succeed.

Cardinal Gibbons, while in Worcester, Mass., gave his views on international peace.

"I should be very glad, indeed, to give my views on such a subject in detail, for it is one in which I am profoundly interested. But want of time precludes my stating at length the reasons by which I hold that Christ's mission of peace to men has not failed. Christ's mission on earth was to establish a triple peace in the hearts of men, peace with God by the observance of his commandments, peace with our fellow-men by the practice of justice and charity, and peace within our own breasts by keeping our passions subject to reason, and our reason in harmony with the divine law. It is true that the history of the last twenty centuries, with their wars that have ravaged the Christian world, might lead some people to take the view and to exclaim in anguish of heart that the mission of Christ was a failure. But this view is not a right one to take. Indeed, the cause of peace has made most decisive progress, and its ultimate success is assured."

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; He says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two said it was kidney; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranted to cure blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and an, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist, 50c.
